

Organisation name	Project Description	Location	Funding Awarded
Jally Productions Inc	Kookoo Kookaburra - Jally Productions will work with local author Gregg Driese to translate his children's book, Kookoo Kookaburra into a stage production. Funding is for script development.	Noosaville	$5,354
Noosa Creative Precinct Inc.	First Fridays - Noosa Creative Precincts will work with local established and emerging artists to create new work in a market like atmosphere. This project will deliver 6 events over a 6 month period. Each artwork will involve an established, a mid career and an emerging artist in the creation of a new work. Audience members will be able to observe the artwork creation.	Noosa Junction	$9,270
Rene Bahloo	Weave Heal Connected - Sculpting for Landcare - Rene Bahloo of Weavery will facilitate the creation of a sculptural piece to be woven by Noosa community members and emerging artists, at Noosa and District Landcare's Rural Future's Centre in Pomona. This piece will be showcased in the foyer of Noosaville Library and at Pomona Gallery in May/June 2016, before relocating to its home at Noosa Landcare.	Pomona and Noosa Library	$5,200
National Institute of Socio Economic & Environmental Research Ltd.	ANZAC Centenary Timber Art - Equestrian ANZAC - an art installation where pictures of the Australian light horse charge at Beersheba and other images of local equestrian activities are burned/branded into large timbers (from an old bridge at Kin Kin). The work will be on display on the corner of School and Hospital Streets in Pomona.	Pomona	$0
Total			$19,824