Information Sheet – Application to reserve a grave or ashes site - FAQs

People have many questions when it comes to reserving a grave or ashes site in one of the Noosa Council cemeteries. The questions below represent the most frequently asked, however should you have a question or query not listed, please contact the Noosa Council on (07) 5329 6500 or email mail@noosa.qld.gov.au

1. Holding Fee

The Holding fee holds the site until the time of interment only. The holding fee is a one-off charge, and is non-deductable from the interment fee. (Additional fees apply at time of interment).

2. What does my holding fee cover?

Your holding fee covers the costs associated with reserving and maintaining the site until date of use only.

3. Burial Rights Fee

This fee is to be paid at the same time as paying the holding fee if you wish to have the plot held in advance or else it is paid at the time of interment if a plot has not been held or previously reserved.

4. Renewal Fee (10 yearly)

This fee is to be paid every 10yrs to keep a site that is held for a future burial (not for sites already interred). Noosa Council Cemetery Office will make every attempt to contact the Burial Rights Holder using the contacts provided prior to the 10yrs date and within a couple of months after. If the site renewal fee has not been paid or Noosa Council Cemetery Office cannot get in contact with the Burial Rights holder within two months of the renewal due date, the Burial Rights will be forfeited and your Burial Rights fee will be refunded minus an administration fee.

5. Can I pre-purchase my grave or ashes interment?

No. You can only pay to hold a grave or ashes site and the Burial Rights component associated with the site.

6. Does my site include the headstone or memorial?

No. At the time of interment there will be additional fees including interment fee and memorialisation fee.

7. I would like my partner placed in the same site as myself, is this possible?

Yes, in most circumstances all interment positions are prepared for 2 burials. Some restrictions apply in certain cemeteries, but this is advised at the time of reservation. If required there will be a fee for additional burial/interment.

8. Do I own my grave or ashes site?

No, you hold the rights to that grave or ashes site, therefore, becoming the burial rights holder. The land remains in the administration of the Noosa Council, however, only the burial rights holder can authorise burials or ashes and memorial additions.

9. Am I able to choose the location of my grave or ashes site?

Yes. A council officer can meet you onsite to discuss the available locations.

10. Can I sell the rights of my grave or ashes position to another person?

No, your position may only be returned to council. You are not able to sell your position to another person.

11. When I pass away what is required for my family to use my site?

At the time funeral arrangements are completed, a copy of the "Burial Rights Certificate" is required to be forwarded to the council office for verification. This can be done through your funeral director.

12. Why should I reserve a grave or ashes site?

The reservation of a grave or ashes site removes the burden on your family to choose a location for your burial.

13. Doesn't my prepaid funeral plan already cover this cost?

We cannot advise you regarding the numerous funeral plans available. You would need to contact the insurance company direct to confirm exactly what is covered by your individual plan.

14. RSL site – I would like to reserve a site in the RSL section of the cemetery?

You cannot reserve an RSL burial site and ashes reservations must be applied for via the relevant RSL Sub Branch.
